Intel® Educator Ambassador

Jill Pierce

STEM Coordinator, Athens, Tennessee

Jill Pierce is a twenty-year veteran of Instructional Technology. She began her career as the technology director for Loudon County schools, implementing and maintaining all technology, as well as training the staff in its proper use. From there, she moved to PCS, Inc. as an Educational Technology Trainer, training faculty in schools across Tennessee on the use of technology in the classroom. Today, she is the System-Wide STEM Coordinator for McMinn County Schools.

Ms. Pierce's passion for Instructional Technology has led her to become active in many organizations across her state. She is a member of the International Society of Technology Educators (ISTE), the Tennessee Distance Learning Association (TDLA), and the Tennessee Education Technology Association (TETA). She served on TETA's board of directors for eight years, the state chair for two years, and currently as the ISTE liaison. She was also the first chair of the Administrative Technology Academy, and endeavor that began in East Tennessee, but is now held in all three grant regions of the state.

Ms. Pierce has won many awards and accolades for her work, including the TETA Directors' Award in 2006, the ISTE Making it Happen Award in 2008, and she was named a 2014 Microsoft* Expert Educator, an honor that will bring her to the Microsoft in Education Global Forum in Barcelona, Spain.
