Intel employees build products and services that make the world a better place, and your benefits should do the same for you.

Intel is committed to curating a benefits package that prioritizes the health and well-being of you and your family.

The benefits available to you are comprehensive, competitive and designed to fit your life. These programs allow you to make your health and wellness a top priority.

Health Benefits for the whole you

Our holistic approach includes no cost preventive care, prescription drugs, mental and behavioral healthcare, fertility and conception services, cord blood banking and more. Choosing health coverage is an important decision for you and your family. It is important to consider the best option available for you. Here are some points to consider:

- Each Intel option offers comparable coverage and quality services, including prescription drugs and no-cost preventive care.
- Options differ in when and how you pay and it's important for you to understand the total cost of care which includes paycheck deductions + deductibles + coinsurance + copays.
- Using an in-network provider will maximize your benefit. Do you want to keep seeing your primary care provider or specialist? Use the Find a Provider resources to identify if your providers are in-network.
- Anthem and Connected Care networks provide access to in-network care throughout the U.S.
- All options provide protection through an out-of-pocket maximum, when using in-network providers.
- If you choose to use an out-of-network provider, you may incur additional cost.
- Each option allows you to contribute to a tax-advantaged spending account – Flexible Spending Account or Health Savings Account.

Expanding your Family Benefits

Having a child can be both a choice and a challenge. Intel provides valuable benefits to help employees prepare for the road ahead, whether it's planning for a future family, securing your future or requiring support to conceive. Intel helps families ease the financial burden by offering expanded conception services in addition to the pregnancy and adoption benefits that help employees grow their family.

*For employees enrolled in the Anthem or Connected Care options, the Enhanced Fertility Benefit offers a lifetime maximum of $40,000 for expanded conception service, with $20,000 of prescription drug coverage for conception related conditions. HMO coverage may vary.

Adoption Assistance benefit offers up to $15,000 reimbursement for qualified adoption expenses per adoption.

Key Terms

Annual Deductible

The total amount you pay before coinsurance begins.

Coinsurance

The percentage of costs of a covered healthcare service you pay AFTER you've paid your deductible.

Out-of-Pocket Maximum

The amount you'll pay each year before coverage for eligible expenses are paid at 100% up to the maximum allowed amount. Certain exclusions apply.

Types of Healthcare Options

High Deductible Health Plan (HDHP)

High deductible health plan options are designed to help you and your family take control of your healthcare dollars and decisions by providing you with the flexibility and control in choosing the services you and your dependents receive and how to pay for the cost of these services.

There is no annual paycheck deduction, however there is an annual deductible that must be paid before the option pays benefits. You can offset the deductible by making pre-tax contributions to a Health Savings Account (HSA) and use those funds to pay for eligible healthcare expenses. You may also be able to contribute to a Limited Use Health Flexible Spending Account to help pay for eligible dental and vision expenses.

Copay

Copay options require an annual paycheck deduction but there are no deductibles to keep track of and no paperwork to worry about for services you receive. Simply pay a copay at the time of service and move on with your day. You can contribute to a Health Flexible Spending Account (Health FSA) to help pay for eligible healthcare expenses.

HMO

An HMO has no deductibles to keep track of, but requires an annual paycheck deduction. When you receive care, you'll just pay a copay for most covered services. For out-of-network care, you will not have any coverage with an HMO, and will be responsible for all medical costs, except for a medical emergency.

Intel offers the following options to New Mexico employees

Each offers comparable coverage and quality services, including prescription drugs and no-cost preventative care.

- You can visit any dentist, but you will get the best benefit coverage when you visit a PPO dentist.
- Preventative and diagnostic service does not count towards your annual benefit maximum.

PPO Dentist	$2,500
Premier Dentist	$2,000
Major Services (e.g., crowns)	Your coinsurance: 40%
Preventative and diagnostic Services	Excluded from maximum

For full benefit coverage details including out-of-network coverage, visit My Health Benefits and the Pay, Stock and Benefits Handbook.

Dental HMO offered by DeltaCare USA

The Dental HMOs offer access to a narrow network of licensed dentists. Like a medical HMO, you will be assigned a primary care dentist who will coordinate care and provide referrals to specialists, including referrals to pediatric dentists. Covered services have preset copayments (dollar amounts), with no deductibles and limited annual maximums.

- The DeltaCare USA network is smaller than the standard Delta network. Please review the provider directory and the DeltaCare USA option highlights PDF on <https://www.deltadentalins.com/intel> before enrolling.
- There is no out-of-network coverage. Onsite Dental, located on some Intel campuses, is not part of the DeltaCare USA network.
- Important: If you want to change your primary care dentist before receiving care, contact DeltaCare USA at 1-800-422-4234 otherwise you may not receive benefit coverage.

Consumer Accounts

Health Savings Account (HSA)*

If you are enrolled in an HDHP, you may be eligible to contribute pre-tax dollars to an HSA to help pay for out-of-pocket healthcare expenses, i.e., deductible, coinsurance and copayments. HSAs are like personal savings accounts, but the money in them is used to pay for healthcare expenses. You — not your employer or insurance company — own and control the money in your HSA. Funds roll over year-to-year and are yours to keep if you change options, leave Intel or retire.

Limited Use Health Flexible Spending Account (LUFSA)

Those enrolled in an HDHP and contributing to an HSA can contribute an annual amount through pre-tax payroll deductions for eligible non-reimbursed dental and vision expenses only. Up to $550 will carry over for use in the following year. Any unused amounts over $550 will be forfeited.

Health Flexible Spending Account (Health FSA)

A Health FSA allows you to contribute an annual amount through pre-tax payroll deductions for eligible non-reimbursed medical, dental and vision expenses. Up to $550 will carry over for use in the following year. Any unused amounts over $550 will be forfeited. You may not contribute to a Health FSA if you are contributing to an HSA.

Dependent Care Assistance Program (DCAP)

DCAP allows you to elect an annual amount through pre-tax payroll deductions for eligible dependent care expenses that enable you and your spouse to work, look for work or attend school full time. Any unused funds at the end of the year are forfeited.

Monthly Pre-Tax Commuter Benefit

This benefit gives you the opportunity to set aside pre-tax dollars through paycheck deductions for mass transit, vanpools and parking.

*HSA is not an Intel-sponsored benefit. Eligibility requirements apply and contribution limits are set by the IRS.

These special accounts let you set aside pre-tax money to pay for your health or dependent care expenses.
