Food for Thought Student Sample

Students use Showing Evidence to identify and summarize their persuasive arguments in conjunction with the data they have gathered on student nutrition at school. They present their findings to the appropriate audience with decision-making authority.

Prompt: What changes should be done at school to improve student nutrition?